DAILY SENTINEL.

"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2, 1866. NO. 75.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday, Nov. 2, 1866.

WESTERN SIMPLICITY.—Western simplicity,—not greenness but genuine candor and character,—are to be seen in the following incident, furnished sometime since by a Western correspondent:

In a Wild Western neighborood, where the sound of the church-going bell had never been heard, notice was given that Rev. Mr. A——, a distinguished divine, would preach on a certain day.

The natives, who consisted mainly of those hardy pioneers who have preceded civilization, come in crowds to hear him. They had an indistinct idea that preaching was something to be heard, and all intended to hear it.

After the service had begun a rawboned hunter, with rifle in hand and all the accoutrements of the chase about him, entered and took the only vacant seat,—a nail keg without either head.—The current of the preacher's thoughts led him into a description of heaven and its inhabitants. With great power he had drawn a picture of the habitation of the blessed, and was assigning each of the patriarchs, prophets and apostles his appropriate place. His tendencies led him to reserve the Apostle Paul for his climacteric. With his eye fixed upon the highest point, and with an upward gesture, that seemed to be directed to the loftiest altitude of the heavenly places, he said:

"And where, my brethren, shall we seat the great Apostle of the Gentiles? Where, I say, shall we place the Apostle Paul?"

Then pausing to give the imagination time to reach the elevation designed for the Apostle, he fixed his eye upon our hero of the rifle. He, therefore, thinking the address personal, rose instantly and then replied:

"If he can't do no better, he can take my seat."

It is needless to say that that climax was never reached.

WE HAVE READ with regret General Sheridan's order, in which he speaks of Maximilian as a Mexican buccaneer, and orders a difference of treatment to his adherents than to the supporters of the Liberal party.

While we have no sympathy whatever with Maximilian, and rejoice at the failure of the French Emperor thus far to absorb the material resources of Mexico for his own advantage, yet we think grave resolutions of policy, on such important matters as our relations with the French in Mexico, should be announced by the Department entrusted with our foreign relations. Further: The offensive terms used in reference to Maximilian seem hardly to be in keeping with the dignity of the occasion.

Maximilian's throne is crumbling to pieces under him; the French expedition is universally regarded as a most conspicuous failure. This is what we desired, but still we do not wish to see the Government of the United States represented, through any of its official sources, in a style which lets us down beneath the elevation of a great role.

Military officers should venture upon these kind of denunciatory orders with great caution. That is not exactly their vocation. They are not naturally distinguished for their peculiar skill in diplomacy.—Nat. Intelligencer.

A GEORGIA JOKE.—A Southern paper relates the following:

"A certain Georgian, not having been splendidly educated, but who was very successful as a 'money-maker,' determined to send his son off for refinement and culture, to the good 'Old North State.' When the young man arrived at the destined point the president of the institution wanted to know what line of studies he would pursue, and failing to elicit the information from the boy, interrogated the old man, by letter, as follows:

"'My Dear Sir—Your son has arrived, &c.—What branch shall I put him in?'

"'Respectfully, ——.'

"This was a poser, and bothered the 'old gent' mightily. In his musings he could arrive at nothing satisfactory, but was suddenly reminded of his son's impending danger, and the necessity of doing someting speedily to save him. After 'rummaging' awhile for a pen, ink and paper, he produced the following demoralized effusion:

"'Sir—If the boy must go into a branch select one yourself; but, for his mother's sake, don't put him in Tar river.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Friday Evening, Nov. 2, 1866.

Progress of Crime.

There are several facts stated in the following extract of a letter published in the Washington Chronicle, written by a correspondent of that paper from Newbern. The author, we take it, is not a resident of the State, but has recently been at Newbern on official business, and makes his statements upon the authority of others. Amid some truths there are also some errors, which truth requires should be corrected. The extract we make is as follows:

"There is much disorder in this State, and in two or three of the southeastern counties bands of robbers and murderers of high and low degree have become the terror of all decent people. This is particularly the case in Lenoir and Duplin, and perhaps Wayne. I learn these facts from one of the State judges, who, it affords me pleasure to say, holds such lawless characters in proper abhorrence, and who exerts his authority to suppress and punish the villains. He informs me that these gangs of thugs prowl about the country and rob all who come in their way, and especially the negroes. Men who, at the beginning of the late civil war, claimed to be gentlemen, have become so depraved and degraded as to steal horses and even blankets, from negroes who are endeavoring to support themselves by honest industry. It may be hoped that not many persons of respectabl parentage have descended to this level. I learn from the same respectable authority, and from others, that it is unsafe to travel alone and by private conveyance through the counties which are infested by these organized bands of villains. They have become a terror to all classes, white and black, rebels and Unionists. It is clear that more troops are needed in this State to preserve order. The spirit of lawless violence has been a natural consequence of the civil war, and of the malicious grudge which many whites cherish towards the blacks because they have become free. The sudden liberation of the negroes at the close of a long civil war, in spite of their masters' efforts to hold them in bondage, has in like manner demoralized them to a considerable extent, and they, too, are prone to vagabondism, violence and crime. Murder, robbery, rape, theft and arson are the order of the day, and whites and blacks are alike guilty. The negroes are sure to be punished, while the whites, very often escape unwhipped of justice. Perjury among these abandoned wretches, white and black, is common, and they have no scruple about swearing each other out of the grip of the law. There ought to be two or three thousand cavalry in the State, under the command of discreet and honest officers. They would exert a wholesome influence, and would inspire a sense of security which does not now exist. What I have said of one of the State judges I may say of all. I believe that, without exception, that they are good men, who mean to do their duty."

Our information authorizes the belief that the correspondent of the Chronicle speaks too strongly, when he says "there is much disorder in this State," and all doubt is removed as to the incorrectness of the impression produced upon his mind, when he suggests, supposing the disorder to be very great, "there ought to be two or three thousand cavalry in the State" for the suppression of these disorders.

For more than twelve months, we have heard of outrages being committed in Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Greene and Wayne Counties, occurring at intervals of weeks and months, perpetrated by bands of armed negroes in several instances, and in others by lawless white men, not citizens perhaps of the immediate neighborhoods where committed. Murders, thefts, house-breaking, horse stealing and perhaps other offences are alleged to have been committed. Whether any proper effort has been made to arrest these desperadoes and put a stop to their daring outrages, or whether the people in those Counties have been content with the efforts they can make themselves to suppress them, we are not advised. In some few instances these marauders have been arrested and brought to justice. In most cases, whether these outrages were alleged to have been committed by whites or blacks, the object seems generally to have been plunder, and the parties or leaders have been unknown. The impression is that they are composed of lawless marauders who have congregated from different States, and are living by crime.

One thing has surprised us, supposing these reported outrages to have been true and to have been as often repeated and as diabolical as reported: that the authorities in those Counties have made so little ado about them. We have inferred, from the silence which has been observed in regard to them, especially since the restoration of civil law, that the rumors have been very much exaggerated. If, as this correspondent suggests, these "bands of murderers and robbers," "have become the terror of all decent people," it is strange that we have never heard that the attention of Gov. Worth has been called to it. We apprehend if his attention had been called to it, and the case had been as bad as rumor sometimes had it, or half as bad as the correspondent of the Chronicle seems to imagine it, that if no milder means would have arrested the evil, his Excellency would have called upon Gen. Robinson to put down the marauders at once by the cavalry force at his command. That force is ample to arrest any amount of disorder which has occurred or may likely occur in this State. We do not doubt a moment, that the cavalry force in the State, under the lead of suitable guides and acting under strict orders, could annihilate, in two weeks, any band of robbers or murderers in the State, and suppress every species of disorder which may arise. And if those bands are not already dispersed, we think the most summary measures should be adopted for their suppression.

We do not believe the statement that any persons, who have sustained respectable positions in the community heretofore, have connected themselves with these bands, nor do we believe that the negroes are special objects of their plunder. Moreover, the intimation of the writer, "that the whites are prompted by a malicious grudge which they cherish towards the negroes because they have become free," is a shameless perversion of the truth and is not warranted by facts. The idea is a very common one among Radicals who are ignorant of the facts. It is contrary to all experience and reason, that the whites should feel any malice towards the blacks, when they were in no wise accessory to or responsible for their emancipation. The conduct of some of them, since their freedom, towards their former friends, may have caused ill-feeling, but, as a general rule, the former owners are still their best friends and are far more considerate of their condition than those who never owned them. Equally untrue is the remark, that the negroes who are guilty of crime are always punished, while the whites go unwhipped of justice. The course of our Judges, during the late ridings, and the results of the Courts, show a disposition to do justice to all classes. The correspondent admits the high character of our Judges, but there is evidence, in the general tone of the letter, of no ordinary anxiety to find fault, and to furnish a nut or two for the Radicals to crack.

News in Brief.

——The Washington correspondent of the New York Times states that Minister Campbell will proceed to Mexico forthwith. It as understood that the French troops, and also Maximilian in person, will soon leave the country, that the United States, in addition to recognizing the Juarez Government, has undertaken to support it, it such support should become necessary, and that in consideration of this pledge Mexico will cede to the United States a large portion of Chihuahua, nearly the whole of Sonora and all of Lower California. In plain phrase, it is possible that the United States will assume the protectorate of Mexico. If this be so Uncle Sam will have another elephant on his hands, besides the "unreconstructed States," the "nigger" and the Freedmen's Bureau. It is generally credited that General Sherman will accompany Mr. Campbell, and, with hand upon sword-hilt, will re-inforce the persuasions of the diplomat.

—— The Fenian excitement, in consequence of the conviction of Lynch and McMahon by the Colonial Courts of Canada, continues unabated. We confess to but little favor for Fenianism. Whenever the Irish, upon their own soil, shall attempt to throw off the yoke of the English government, for real or imaginary oppression, they have the right to do so, and they will stand in a different attitude before the world.

But their movements in this country partake too much of the filibustero to entitle them to sympathy or approval, to say nothing of their manifest purpose to violate the international and neutrality laws.

In this connection, we have been inclined to regard, as a significant and favorable augury, the explicit declaration of Mr. Seward, in his late letter to Sir Frederick Bruce, interceding for the release of the convicted Fenians, that it is "the opinion of the Government that sound policy coincides with the best impulses of a benevolent nature in recommending tenderness, amnesty and forgiveness" in cases where the offences are of a political character. We could not interpret it differently, without imputing to the government a continued discrepancy between principle and practice that would be too glaring to escape the notice and condemnation of the civilized world. It would not be surprising, even as the matter stands, if Sir Frederick Bruce should call the attention of our government to the inconsistency of its theory with its practical policy as illustrated in the case of Mr. Davis, who is held in confinement purely for a political offence, and has for eighteen months been denied the felon's privilege of a trial by a jury of his peers. The retort would be damaging.

——The excitement in Baltimore, on account of the action of Gov. Swann in removing the Police Commissioners, is represented by telegraph to be intense, and there are serious indications of trouble. The Governor could not have pursued a different course, without being guilty of malfeasance as criminal as that of the corrupt and perjured Commissioners, themselves. The evidence elicited in the course of the investigation disclosed an amount of corruption, venality and villainy that almost passes belief.—Elections held under such a system as these developments prove to have existed are worse than a farce. And yet we have every reason to believe that it is precisely such a system which has controlled the elections in all the Northern States. The truth is that higher-law-ism is the characteristic feature of the Radicalism of the present day, at the North, and would be with its adherents in the South, if they were not fortunately insignificant in numbers and influence. They would interpret the Constitution and law to suit themselves and their fell purposes, without reference to the intentions of law-makers or the expositions of the Judiciary.

We sincerely trust that there may be no disturbance in Baltimore. If the Radical rebels, however, undertake to set the authority of law at defiance, the strong arm of the government will be invoked and wielded to put them down. But a civil war inaugurated in that city might result in consequences of which no man can at present foresee the end. May it be averted!

BENNETT says that the following sentence from Edward Everett's Gettysburg oration is an unequivocal enunciation of the "loyal masses" of the American people which the third section of the constitutional amendment will, when adopted, enact into a law:

"The people of loyal America will NEVER take to their confidence or admit again to a share in their government the hard-hearted men whose cruel lust of power has brought this desolating war upon the land."

Does Mr. Holden go the entire swine, with his brother Bennett,—tail, bristles, and all?

Governor Humphreys, of Mississippi, in view of the precarious condition of Jeff. Davis' health, recommends that the Legislature appoint one or two commissioners to proceed to Washington and confer with the President with a view to the release of Mr. Davis on parole or bail.

For the Sentinel.

"What's in a Name?"—Much.

Mustapha Rub-a-dub Kali Khan was, as one of the writers of Salmagundi tells us, Captain of a Ketch. He fell from his high honors into great distress, and afterwards besought Congress to give him a pair of breeches. After a long and stormy debate on his merits the gift was respectfully declined on high constitutional grounds. He was not even allowed to be called Captain, but was simply addressed as Mustapha, even unto the day of his death.

Sancho Panza, that indiscriminate gatherer up of loaves and fishes, and dear lover of sleep, slept with his fathers, as plain Sancho Panza. He once governed an island in great equity and moderation, but his honors died with him. No one arose to bless his name, as Governor, and his descendants to this day scarcely know that gubernatorial blood runs in their veins. It is true that his reign was only a short one,—a year or so,—and from some unexplained cause he was either deposed or compelled to resign.—Sic transit gloria mundi!

Within the memory of man, three distinguished citizens of North Carolina have been appointed to gubernatorial honors, outside of the regular legitimate Governors of our good old State.

Col. Robert T. Paine, commanding a regiment of the ten thousand who went to Mexico, was detached from his command and made Governor of Saltillo. Somewhat severe in his discipline, in both his civil and military capacity, no one ever doubted either his honesty or pluck, and he went to his grave full of honors. But he lived and died plain Colonel Paine.—He was never saluted as Governor after he left Saltillo.

Colonel Edward Cantwell, (still living,—and long may he wave!) during the Confederate struggle for life, was placed in command of Norfolk city and environs as Governor. His was a mild and gentle rule. After a few months he went back to his old place in the army, and though he was unlucky enough to be caught once or twice, and put upon prison fare, he now wears gracefully the title he wore on the field; but alas! no one calls him Governor Cantwell.

But greater and "sweeter far than these, than all," stands our own dearly beloved Ex-Provisional Governor, William W. Holden. He is, as he should be, called Governor yet. It is true, Gen. Dockery has irreverently called him "Billy Holden;" and has said that he "out-lied them all." But the noble-hearted old hero was evidently in a passion. When he came to himself he undoubtedly corrected his error—and was very sorry. But whether Gen. Dockery said this wicked thing in a rage, or as his deliberate judgment, it must be contradicted, and that too with great energy. We cannot and will not stand it. We stoutly affirm, that Governor Holden is every inch a Governor. We add what we do know, that he wore his honors meekly—and we more than insinuate, that the people were a set of jackasses for voting him down. They knew not what they did. They did him, and themselves too, grievous wrong, and grievously have they been punished for their sin. We are now kept out of this glorious Union because they, in their fool-hardiness, rejected his caresses, and believed what Gen. Dockery told them. We deny that our beloved Ex-P. G. has "out-lied them all." We maintain that it is very difficult, if not impossible, ever to catch him in the lie direct. If it be replied that there are other modes of falsehood, by circumstance, by suppression, by artful dodging, by inuendo, where there may be the intention to deceive without the boldness to use words directly and palpably false—we then say that that sneaking and contemptible mode of falsehood can by no means apply to our honored friend. He is above all subterfuge—above all evasion; and we proudly point to the Tri-weekly record of his sentiments in justification of our opinion.

On his nomination to San Salvador, with what ardor did he love the Senate! During the few weeks that preceded his advent to the Federal city, how freely did he proclaim his readiness to eat all the dirt they could pile at his door! Through the medium of his Tri-Weekly record how winningly he urged the faithful to do the same pleasant thing! It was not so very bad after all. It was at least the best food they would be able to get. It was indeed almost good and palatable to the taste, for he had tried it.

On reaching the famous "city of magnificent distances," with what coaxing humbleness he prostrated himself before his new friends, and begged them to spit upon him, and trample on him with their precious Radical feet! The exemplary Uriah Heep and his blarney-tongued mother never spoke words of such melting humility. It would be so good and comfortable to realize in his person a vicarious example of what the South must come to at last! They did not beslaver him much, however. In fact they were rather tender of their neophyte.—They lifted him up and kissed him on both cheeks—Sumner imprinting audible osculations on the right check, and Thaddeus on the left. They tenderly assured him that the handwriting was very pretty, but the liquor could not come—yet. He had done much, it was true, towards humbling his section. But the Augean stable was still uncleansed. He must labor on with mattock and shovel and spade.—And when the work was done—thoroughly finished, when the South was completely subdued in spirit, and all manhood crushed out—why then—then—they would see about what they could afford to do, in reward of his services.—After forming a Union circle around our simpering acquiescent X. P. G., they gave him a long continuous puritanical smile, and each extending his ten digits from his nasal, linked in a strange and curious fashion, they assured him of their overwhelming love for him and the South. Thaddeus smiled grimly, and said not a word about bayonets or hell fire. Sumner sung through the nose a solemn stave from an old dog eared Puritan song book—and the X. P. G. slowly and in a very stately fashion retired backwards from the Radical conclave—and directed his steps Southwardly greeting, with a flea in his ear, indeed, but a Heavenly hope in his heart.

Shall he not then, after having done and suffered so much for our good, be always called Governor? Yes, verily, our Governor he was, our Governor he is, and our Governor he shall be—and be so called, to the end of the chapter, "honest Dockery" to the contrary notwithstanding.

And more yet shall be done. In the forthcoming and enlarged edition of "The Southern Cross," that great emanation from the pen of our "great Philosopher, poet, friend," (and eke Governor,) his own apotheosis shall be gloriously blended with that of his great apostle of secession, John C. Calhoun, and they shall shine together in the milky way, while the world lasts. So shine, and forever shall shine, Thomas Jefferson celebrated as the Draftsman of the glorious Declaration, and John Adams the elder, of still brighter fame for crowning with success by his votes and his matchless eloquence his co-adjutor's magnificent scheme. X.

Mr. Peabody received the children of the public schools of Baltimore in front of the Peabody Institute on Friday afternoon. The children turned out to the number of about 18,000, presenting a most pleasing and animated spectacle.

The Stonewall (Winchester) Cemetery.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I was in Winchester, Virginia, on the 24th and 25th of the present month, the day of the dedication of the Stonewall Cemetery, though I did not remain to witness the ceremonies. There was a vast crowd of people assembled and Ex-Gov. Wise was present to deliver the oration. The people, in and around Winchester, deserve great credit for their exertions in collecting and interring the noble dead who fell near that place in their defence. They have gathered the remains of every Confederate that they could find in a radius of twenty miles around Winchester. You will see, from the report of the Chairman of the Executive Committee, (a copy of which I enclose to you, and which I hope you will give an insertion in your paper,) that North Carolina stands ahead of all the other States in the number of her dead.

The Cemetery is a beautiful piece of ground, laid off in plats,—North Carolina having the largest, except the mound to the unknown dead, in which mound I was informed that North Carolina had probably largely more than any other State. In that mound lies a portion of the bones of the son of your Correspondent.—In the North Carolina plot I saw many names I know well. In front were the remains of Gen. Godwin, Col. Charles C. Blacknall, Col. Stallings, and another Colonel whose name I have forgotten. At the head of the column, near the Virginia mound, lies the body of Col. Christie.

You will see from the report that it is expected for each State to raise a monument on their square. I hope North Carolina will heartily respond, and I think you would do your State good service by calling their attention to this matter. I hope also that North Carolina will do a noble part towards building the monument to the unknown dead.

I have scribbled this for your information and not for publication, but, if you think the information worth publishing, you can give it.

Yours &c., W.

Central Executive Committee's Report of the "STONEWALL CEMETERY."

To the Citizens of Winchester and Vicinity:

As Chairman of the Central Executive Committee of the "Stonewall Cemetery," appointed by you in public meeting assembled, I have the honor to make the following report of our progress thus far. In doing so, it has seemed proper to go somewhat into detail, that you might understand fully how we have performed the duty imposed upon us by your appointment.

We are able to report to day that in nine months since the 22d day of last February, we have collected the remains of 2,494 dead from numberless localities, enclosed them in suitable coffins, and given them decent burial in consecrated ground, and with a protecting enclosure. These dead have been collected from an area of fifteen miles radius about this town, at an expenditure of time, labor and money, readily imaginable. In the removal every precaution has been taken to obtain all information possible about every man, to be imbodied in a permanent record. In interring them every grave has been marked by a number corresponding to its place in the record, so as to prevent any mistakes of indentity, should even head-boards be destroyed or defaced.

The whole number now buried here is 2,494, as follows:

North Carolina	447
Virginia	394
Georgia	289
South Carolina	148
Alabama	72
Louisiana	69
Mississippi	66
Florida	38
Tennessee	29
Arkansas	20
Maryland	13
Texas	5
Kentucky	3
Delaware	1
Unknown dead	815
Whose names are known but not their States	85

We have procured, with much difficulty and expense, suitable grounds. These have been appropriately laid off, 1,679 single graves have been prepared, and the central mound—the common grave of 815 men—raised to its present prominence, by the deposit thereon of thousands of loads of earth.

We had hoped on the occasion of this dedication to have presented the grounds in a more advanced state of completion, but occurrences, unexpected and beyond our control, have caused serious delay. We have not as yet been able to procure head-boards for the entire number of graves, owing to the difficulty of obtaining suitable timber, and the failure of the contractor to furnish them at the time specified, but we expect to prepare them in a short time.

An arrangement has been made with the "Mt. Hebron Cemetery Company," by which the "Stonewall Cemetery" will be incorporated with the former, thus adding to the beauty of both, and securing for the dead soldiers the same protection and care as is given to the dead of our own town.

Thus much we have done, but our task is not yet accomplished. Some of the dead are yet to be collected, and their last resting place adorned as befits the men who sleep there. This slope must be clothed with verdure, and planted with sheltering trees. A fund must be provided to secure proper care of the spot in future, that no marks of neglect may meet the eyes that would look where the loved one sleeps. Our task is not completed until upon the central mound shall rise a monument worthy the nameless braves who sleep beneath, and the several States shall have recorded, in enduring marble, their gratitude for those who, at the call of mother-state, took their lives in their hand and went forth to battle and to die. We appeal to you, therefore, to give, of the little war has left you, to this noble object. Give us the means and we pledge ourselves to make the "Stonewall Cemetery" worthy of the name of Jackson, of the Tomb of Ashby, and of the respect we owe the memory of those who died for our cause. Winchester was, for four long years, the Northern Gate of the Confederacy, through which friend and foe surged in alternate victory and defeat. Let us place hard-by its shattered portals this monument to those who laid down their life for us and ours.

The collection which will now be taken up, is to be appropriated towards the erection of a monument to the "Unknown Dead." Others have given their lives, they have given their very names and memories. For them no State will rear the votive marble, no friend weep over their unknown grave; they have left but one record—they died in the Jacket of Grey.

Be it then our special care to erect the monument to their memory. You may have but little to give them, but recollect they gave their all for you.

JOSEPH H. SHERRARD,
Chairman Central Executive Committee,
"Stonewall Cemetery."

At a tournament lately held in Tuscumbia, Ala., the prize, a pair of silver spurs, was awarded to a competitor who had been a Federal officer, Gen. Forrest being one of the judges. The victor, as soon as he had received the prize, announced that it was offered as a present to the Association for the Sepulchre of Confederate Dead. This act was highly applauded.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, Nov. 1st 1866.—F J Fox, E F Fox, John Taylor, Major Wm H Stickney, Goldsboro'; E. A Russell, N C; J T Long, W H Green, M C Nixon, N C R R; C Henry, N Y; Lieut J J Sullivan, U S A; Dr. A B Chapin, Rhode Island; D Cameron, Hillsboro; J M Proctor, New Orleans; Walter F Leak, Richmond Co; C P Cardozo, Norfolk, Va.

WHAT THEY SAY OF US.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Express, writing from this city, says:

"The merchants here are quite enterprising. I have been into several stores that would really reflect credit on cities of four times the size. Every article that the Petersburg, Richmond or Baltimore merchant can offer, may be obtained here, and at prices quite as reasonable.

The ladies dress very elegantly, and do not seem to have felt the effects of the war pecuniarily. Many of them are handsome, and candor requires that I should say many others are just the opposite. This, however, will apply to every community. It is a wise provision of Providence. How could we admire the beautiful if there were no ugliness to show the contrast!"

The Texas Legislature has created a Criminal Court for, and to be held alternately in, Galveston and Houston. All convicts sentenced to hard labor are to be hired out on public works. This is a great improvement.

Henry J. Raymond was educated at the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, New-York, and the students of the institution lately looked up the records to find which of the rival secret societies he belonged to. They were rather amused than astonished to find his name on the rolls of both.

A Frenchman in New Orleans proposes to light all the street lamps of the city simultaneously by means of an electro-magnetic battery, operated by clock work. When the sun gets up, the clock runs down, and the gas is out.

On Sunday, in Cincinnati, a boy of fourteen was shot dead for a trifling offence by a companion of the same age.

The receipts of the four theatres and the minstrels of Philadelphia, for the three months ending on the 1st instant, were $224,188!

After Queen Emma had visited Greenwood Cemetery, she remarked, "Your people live so fast, I wonder they find time to bury their dead so superbly."

A facetious gentleman of Florence was recently expelled the theatre there for squirting scented water on the ballet girls. He maintained that it was his "way of applauding."

It is currently reported that Hon. E. A. Rollins, the present Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is soon to be relieved, and Thomas Spooner, of Ohio, to be appointed in his place.

State News.

——The Eagle, heretofore published at Louisburg, is to be transferred to Henderson, issued Semi-Weekly and improved in every particular.

——The Fayetteville News, speaking of the lands in that immediate vicinity, says that, while they are but poorly adapted for the general purposes of agriculture, they are admirably fitted for the growth of the grape. "Happy Valley" Vineyard, under the cultivation of its proprietor, G. W. Lawrence, Esq., has produced a wine made of the Scuppernong grape, which, by his dextrous manipulation, has been made almost equal to Madeira, which it very much resembles in taste.

——The steamship C. W. Lord cleared on Wednesday from Wilmington for New York, by Messrs. Worth & Daniel, having on board the largest cargo ever carried from that port by any one vessel.

——There will be a Tournament and Coronation Party in Louisburg on the 22nd inst. The Eagle states that the address to the Knights will be delivered by the Hon. Z. B. Vance.

——The cotton-pickers of Halifax have been busily at work. On one plantation fifty hands averaged 295 pounds a day—aggregating 14,750 pounds. On another plantation, thirty-seven hands averaged 288 pounds, making a total of 10,650 pounds. Still on another, fifty hands averaged 194 pounds, aggregating 14,700 pounds. Betty Smith bore off the palm, having picked in a day 757 pounds. Maria Smith picked 626 pounds, and Henry Smith picked 510 pounds.

——Rev. Hope Bain, formerly of Goldsboro', is making speeches in Illinois, abusing North Carolina and the South, preaching Radicalism and—begging money. The last item explains all the rest. Bain is a fair specimen of his class. Bread and butter, or office, are at the bottom of all their shamelessness and malevolence.

——The Winston Sentinel expresses its gratification at the care and neatness with which the graves of our soldiers, who are buried at that place, are preserved. It says, speaking of a visit to the Cemetery, that neat white palings enclose the space of ground allotted for their burial place, and each grave is carefully boxed around, and furnished with a head board legibly marked with the name, company, regiment, and State to which they belonged, and the date of their death; and there, too, were fresh flowers spread upon them, the votive offerings of kind friends to the loved and lost.

——The Salisbury prison lot was sold in that place, on yesterday, by the proper officer of the United State government. Mr. H. H. Helper became the purchaser for $1,600.

——Hon. Wm. A. Graham and Gen. Leventhorpe were in Charlotte on Wednesday. The General is President of the contemplated air line Railroad from Atlanta, via Yorkville, to Charlotte.

——Dr. M. B. Taylor's tan-yard in Charlotte, one of the largest in the State, was consumed by fire on Tuesday night. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been in the building for several days. The loss is very heavy, but covered by insurance to the amount of $15,000.

——The Circuit Court is in session in Wilmington,—Judge Brooks presiding. The Judge delivered a political discourse, or charge, so-called, to the Grand Jury, on Tuesday, with the ability of which, says the Journal, we were not favorably impressed. Judge Brooks certainly betrayed a lamentable ignorance of history in saying, among other things, as the Journal says he did, that "history afforded no example wherein the conquered had been treated with more generosity by the conqueror than had the people of the South experienced, even at the hands of Congress." The Journal thinks the charge could not have been prepared with much labor or care." In such statements as the above there appears to us a good deal of "prepense."

The Wall street bankers, alarmed at the aspect of affairs in Baltimore, have sent agents there to look after their moneys.

General Grant, it is now said, will act as Secretary of War ad interim, if Stanton should retire as reported.

SEWARD'S dispatch forbidding certain "so called" free men of the South (in color black) to go to Peru if they like, because in his opinion they would not better their condition by going, has given the South, what it has not had for a long while, a hearty laugh.

The grand jury in Henry county, Ga., made their presentments to the Superior Court last week, in which they ascribe all the troubles in their community to unfaithful and mischief-making agents of the Fredmen's Bureau.

A lunatic in Cincinnati, Ohio, entered a church on Saturday, and, proceeding to the altar, commenced to pull the officiating priest off, under the impression that he was desecrating the house of God. One of the members present took him to the Asylum.

Speaking of sending Morrissey to Congress—he would be a shrewd voter if not a great speaker, for he has learned to discriminate closely between the eyes and nose.

An express train carried the twenty millions of thalers which form the war indemnity Austria must pay Prussia. The whole amount was paid in silver. It was loaded by the ton and took twenty men six days to count it. Ten clerks, twelve tellers, and thirty-six gens-darmes accompanied the train.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and anybody can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
